

Sandy Point State Reservation INTERPRETIVE PROGRAM

Contact: Taylor Beaton, Park Interpreter
(617) 372-6730

Plover Lovers

June 15th-17th
10:00am to 1:00pm

Join the Interpreter on an informational walk and watch for the Piping Plover, a threatened shore bird on the east coast. Make sure to bring your binoculars! Meet at the second Upper parking lot near the bathroom. Children must be accompanied by an adult. Parking at Sandy Point is limited. All programs are free and open to the public, and are being run as drop-in programs.

Coming Event

Department of Conservation and Recreation, Massachusetts State Parks